AYHAM JEHAD AIWASISHEH

Bio

Ayham Jehad AlAwasisheh, is an emerging Jordanian basketball talent making waves in youth basketball across the region. Standing at 190 cm, Ayham currently plays for Al Hamriyah Club and Ball Above All (BAA) Academy’s U17 and U20 teams, where he consistently competes above his age group. His development has been shaped through key experiences with top programs, including a standout stint at Orthodox Club from 2023 to 2025, where he played a vital role in leading the U14 team to a national championship in 2025.

Ayham’s game is defined by his versatility and presence on both ends of the floor. Known as a strong finisher, reliable shooter, and elite rebounder, he also defends with intensity both inside and on the perimeter.

His performance in the national finals—averaging 8 points and 8 rebounds—was a key factor in his team's title run. His leadership has also been evident as co-captain of BAA's U15 squad, where he helped organize practices and motivate teammates.

Off the court, Ayham continues to develop his skills through high-level training camps like DME Academy and BAA's summer programs. With multiple MVP honors, a top rebounder award, and consistent playoff appearances, he has built a reputation as one of the most promising young players in Jordan. Balancing his basketball career with academics at Al Shorug Private School in Jumeira, Ayham is a dedicated student-athlete with a bright future ahead.
