MAHMOUD KHALIFA

Bio

Mahmoud Khalifa, a Grade 11 student at Al Mawakeb International School Al Barsha, has quickly established himself as one of the UAE's most promising young basketball talents. Over the past several years, he has built an impressive record through club, school, and international competitions.

Mahmoud spent five years playing for Hoops Dreams Academy in the Ball Above All (BAA) tournaments, where he consistently led his team to the finals and earned multiple Most Valuable Player (MVP) honors, including for entire seasons and final games. He represented Sharjah Sports Club for three years, helping the team reach the UAE Cup finals and win the UAE League Championship. At the school level, Mahmoud led Al Chouiefat International School to multiple finals across U13, U15, and senior levels, and also played for the senior team at Al Mawakeb School.

His standout performances extended to individual tournaments and elite training camps. He was named MVP at the MOTN U14 1v1 Tournament in Abu Dhabi, as well as at international skills camps including Marcus Hodges (2024–2025), Sherif Azmy (2023–2024), and The Basketball Embassy's Chris Dial Camp in Turkey (2022–2023). He also took part in the UAE All Rising Stars U16 showcase for two years.

Mahmoud's accolades include being named International Athlete of the Year and MVP of the U15 Boys Basketball team at Sabis School in 2024. Known for his strong finishing, high basketball IQ, and leadership on the court, Mahmoud continues to dominate youth leagues in the UAE, consistently earning recognition for top scoring, assists, steals, and rebounds. With a relentless drive and a growing list of achievements, Mahmoud Khalifa is a name to watch in the future of basketball.
